It Takes a Village: Collaborating to Save Lives

There is no cost for this meeting however, registration is required.

Meeting Program

8:00 -9:00am  Registration and Continental Breakfast

9:00-9:15am  Welcome / Objectives
Julia Slininger, RN, BS, CPHQ- VP Quality and Patient Safety, HASC/HQI

9:15-10:00am  Headline: Surgical Procedures are Safer in CA- Don’t be Left Behind!
Verna Gibbs, MD, Director, NoThing Left Behind®
Professor of Surgery UCSF; Staff Surgeon, SFVAMC

10:00-10:10am  Break

10:10-10:50am  Team Presentation- Sepsis Management
Fay Shinder, RN, BSN, Sepsis Program Coordinator, Long Beach Memorial MC

10:50-11:30am  Team Presentation- Glucose control for Surgical Safety
Romic Eskandarian, Director of Pharmacy, Glendale Adventist Medical Center

11:30-12:15pm  Team Presentation- Using Six Sigma & Lean Effectively in your QI Initiatives
Muder Alkrisat, Ph.D., MSN, RN, CSSBB, CSHA, HACP
Director of Clinical Process Improvement, Coastal Communities Hospital

12:15-1:00pm  Lunch and Networking

1:00-2:00pm  Reducing NTSV C-Sections: a Three Pronged Approach
Diana E. Ramos, MD, MPH, Director of Reproductive Health
Los Angeles County of Public Health

2:00-3:00pm  A Primer on Change Management- Key Concepts and Challenges
Marcey Uday-Riley, MSW, CPT
Pam Cunningham, Six Sigma Black Belt/Lean Instructor

3:00-3:30pm  View from the 2014 Finish Line, and Special Recognition
Julia Slininger, RN, BS CPHQ

Click here to REGISTER TODAY!